JPL Hiking+ Picnic

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Thursday, 22 May 2008
Hahamongna Watershed Park

CLASSIFICATION: Easy

COST: Free for you and a guest if you RSVP (<mailto:ec@ieee.org> with your name and the name of your guest, if you are bringing one) before noon, 20 May 2008.

DESCRIPTION:

Background: Come meet members of the the JPL Hiking club, learn about upcoming activities, applaud as awards are distributed, and enjoy a free light picnic lunch.

"The Hike": From the JPL south gate, get on to the bridle path which begins next to the guard shack. Walk south along the path between the fire station and the JPL fences. Turn right following the fire station south fence until the path merges with the Oak Grove Park road. Walk along the road past the boarded up forest service buildings into Hahamongna Park and look for the group. We will probably be at a group of picnic tables near Frisbee Golf Tee #17, toward JPL from the baseball diamond.

Or, of course, you can drive. The entrance to Hahamongna Watershed Park is at the intersection of Foothill and Oak Grove Dr., across from La Canada High School.

BRING: Yourself and an appetite.
