

JPL HIKING + TRIP REPORT

TRIP: Yosemite Car Camp

LEADER(s): Gary Noreen

DATE(S): November 2-4, 2001

COST: $10 each plus $20 park entrance fee

PERMITS/CAMPSITE INFO: We stayed at the Wawona Group Campground, which cost $40/night. This is a good campground. There are lots of steel bear-proof food storage boxes, which proved convenient.

NO. OF PARTICIPANTS: 7

ACTIVITIES DONE ON TRIP: One group walked the four mile hike from Glacier Point to the valley This was a good hike, but parts of it were slippery from loose rocks. Another pair biked through parts of the park, but bike use of trails is prohibited.

GENERAL COMMENTS: (Please comment on if you feel this trip should be done again.) Yes, everyone enjoyed the trip.

PROBLEMS/CONCERNS:

GOOD STORIES: One the way back, we went through Tioga Pass and stopped at the hot springs near Mammoth. This proved quite popular.
